DEAR ALUMNI, PARENTS AND FRIENDS,

Join Professor Scott Wong as you discover the pristine glory of the Pacific Northwest—a region of unparalleled natural bounty and spellbinding beauty—where majestic waterfalls plunge down mossy cliffs and powerful rivers flow through deep, awe-inspiring gorges edged by steep canyon walls, rugged high desert, and mountains swathed in dense, emerald forests. From Clarkston to Portland, follow Lewis and Clark’s epic passage along the Columbia and Snake Rivers aboard the American Empress, the largest and most elegant riverboat west of the Mississippi.

Your adventure begins with a hotel stay in Spokane, Washington’s second-largest city. Then board the grand American Empress at Clarkston, where rich Native American culture springs to life at the nearby Nez Perce National Historical Park. Explore Sacajawea State Park, the site of Lewis and Clark’s 1805 campsite, and admire the lovely scenery and small-town charm of The Dalles. Head ashore at Stevenson, Washington, your gateway to the famed Bonneville Dam and Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum. Before concluding your journey in Portland, the “City of Roses,” visit the oldest city west of the Rockies, Astoria, blending splendid Victorian homes and maritime relics with delightful cafes and shops.

Delve into the region’s compelling history with lectures given by K. Scott Wong, the James Phinney Baxter III Professor of History and Public Affairs at Williams College; Stephen Cushman, the Robert C. Taylor Professor of English at the University of Virginia; Theodore C. DeLaney Jr., an associate professor of American history at Washington and Lee University; and Castle McLaughlin, a social anthropologist at Harvard University.
