10-Day
Galapagos Voyage
January 31-February 9, 2014
Dear Williams Travelers,

The Galápagos Islands are a favorite destination for those who love wildlife and the natural world. Isolated for millions of years, the Galápagos Islands were colonized by plants and animals that evolved and were literally shaped in this pristine habitat. Turtles grew to giant proportions, iguanas took to the ocean in search of food and more. Each day is full of new discoveries, but this tour allows plenty of time to savor, instead of rush. (B,L,D)

Thursday, January 31

Exploring the Kicker Rock. For breakfast, we arrive to the Kicker Rock, a sea lion colony, for a short Zodiac ride. After, board the deck of the Safari Explorer, and enjoy a relaxing stroll the beach. Enjoy the mountain. Spend two nights at the Aranwa Hotel. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 1

Machu Picchu. Explore the Koricancha, Santa Catalina Convent, and the afternoon is free to explore Machu Picchu or simply relax! Wake early and hike into the Urubamba Valley. Stop in Chinchero to browse and shop for Andean handicrafts. Visit the Urubamba Market. Hiking in the mountains for one hour, then continue to explore the ruins of the Inca city of Machu Picchu. "It is a strange place, a city in a state of suspended animation, a mountain citadel of the Incas, an American Atlantis, a labyrinth of ruins, an isolated city found in the heart of the Andes mountains, built on the ruins of an ancient Inca city."

Saturday, February 2

Machu Picchu. Return to Cusco for lunch, and then continue to explore the ruins of the Inca city of Machu Picchu. "It is a strange place, a city in a state of suspended animation, a mountain citadel of the Incas, an American Atlantis, a labyrinth of ruins, an isolated city found in the heart of the Andes mountains, built on the ruins of an ancient Inca city."

Sunday, February 3

Arequipa. Visit the Arequipa Museum and then explore the city on your own. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 4

Exploring Arequipa’s colonial center. This morning is free to explore Arequipa at your own pace. Continue exploring Arequipa or simply relax! Sleep well and start the next day with a hearty breakfast. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 5

Fly to Lima. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 6

 Lima / Iquitos / Lima. Fly to Cusco — the heart of the Inca Empire — and drive into the Urubamba Valley. Stop in Chinchero to browse and shop for Andean handicrafts. Visit the Urubamba Market. Enjoy the afternoon at the Aranwa Hotel. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 7

Cusco / Iquitos / Cusco. Board the train to Machu Picchu. Enjoy the scenery, listen to the Inca music, explore the ruins with our guided tour. Spend two nights at the Inka de Machu Picchu hotel in Cusco. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 8

Lima / CUSCO / URUBAMBA VALLEY / IQUITOS. Enjoy the scenic flight to Cusco, with time to relax in the hotel before a walk along the aleman beaches of Punta Carrion. After, we are on our way to a floater or a boat. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 9

Santa Cruz / Genovesa Island. Anchored at Genovesa, enjoy an opportunity to swim, snorkel, and explore the beach — the only place where you can see white-tipped sharks, red-footed booby's perform their comical courtship dance in the open space. Enjoy your Discovery Safari boat, where you can see sea turtles during a relaxing stroll the beach. Enjoy a sailing on a Donderv's tour, where you can see the best of Galapagos islands. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 10

Post Office Bay, once used by navigators to send mail for the crew members of the ships docked in the bay, before a walk along the coastline beaches of Punta Carrion. After, we are on our way to a floater or a boat. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 11

Exploring the Kicker Rock. For breakfast, we arrive to the Kicker Rock, a sea lion colony, for a short Zodiac ride. After, board the deck of the Safari Explorer, and enjoy a relaxing stroll the beach. Enjoy the mountain. Spend two nights at the Aranwa Hotel. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 12

Dear Travelers,

The Galapagos Islands are a favorite destination for those who love wildlife and the outdoors. While many might not know, this unique archipelago, known as the “Islands of the Sun,” was once inhabited by plants and animals that evolved and were later shaped by human intervention. Your tour will take you to some of the most beautiful and biodiverse places on earth, and you will have the opportunity to revel in their beauty and diversity.

This 10-day journey affords the opportunity to experience some of the most captivating wildlife found only in the Galapagos. As one of just 32 guests aboard the M/V Evolution, you will have the chance to explore the Galapagos' intoxicating blend of nature and wildlife! Expert naturalist guides will accompany you to provide a better understanding of your unique and beautiful surroundings. Perhaps most important, you will enjoy the camaraderie of a wonderful group of fellow travelers who will make this trip unforgettable.

Sincerely,

Robert V. Behr
