The strength of the Williams network is legendary. No matter where in the world they live or which professional paths they pursue, members of the Williams community share instant recognition of a common experience and a desire to support one another — whether they’re seeking career advice, contemplating a career transition or exploring a new direction.

CLASS OF 2014

- 53% have a job at graduation or are considering an offer
- 70% of graduating students seek advice from alumni
- 22% are planning on grad school
- 20% are still looking for a job at graduation
- 3% not looking yet
- 2% not available
- 53% of employer recruitment visits are by alumni

WILLIAMS ALUMNI

- 42% work for a for-profit corporation, company or group practice
- 27% work for a non-profit organization, institution or NGO
- 16% work for a government, public institution or military
- 15% are self-employed in own business or professional non-group practice
- 60% are willing to volunteer in career-based initiatives supporting students
- 50% are willing to volunteer in career-based initiatives supporting fellow alumni

LOOKING AT LINKED IN

- 524 *Number of students in Class of 2014
- 28,000+ *Number of living alumni
- 800+ *Number of students who have profiles on LinkedIn
- 15,000+ *Number of alumni who have profiles on LinkedIn
- 7,600+ *Number of students and alumni who have joined the Williams Alumni LinkedIn discussion group